*Definitions
“Applicable investments” relates to investments held by the designated employee, spouse and dependent children with an aggregate value of $2,000 or more located or doing business in the jurisdiction. It includes investments held by a business entity or trust in which the designated employee, spouse and dependent children have an aggregate interest of 10% or greater.

“Applicable business positions” relates to positions in which the designated employee was a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or held any position of management during the period covered by the report, even if the designated employee received no income from the business entity during the period.

“Applicable income” includes the designated employee’s gross income (including loans) and the employee’s community property interest in his or her spouse’s gross income aggregating $500 or more received from any source located in or doing business in the jurisdiction. Please note that loans are reported on a separate schedule.

“Applicable gift” includes anything of value for which the designated employee has not provided equal or greater consideration to the donor. A gift is reportable if its fair market value is $50 or more. In addition, multiple gifts aggregating $50 or more received during the reporting period from a single source must be reported. Unless otherwise expressly limited in the Disclosure Categories, gifts are reportable without regard to where the donor is located.
“Applicable interest in real property” includes those located in the jurisdiction in which the employee, spouse, or dependent children had a direct, indirect, or beneficial interest aggregating $2,000 or more any time during the reporting period. The employee is not required to report a residence used exclusively as a personal residence.

“Jurisdiction” means the City of Placentia. Real property is deemed to be “within the jurisdiction” if the property or any part of it is located in or within two miles of the boundaries of the City or any property owned or used by the City, unless a smaller area is specified in the Disclosure Category.
